The "Yale Daily News", (YDN) a Yale University,"
New Haven, Connecticut, daily student campus publication of
2/16/71 on page 1, carried an article captioned "Anti-War Tactics Discussed."

The article reported that a meeting was held in Pierson College, Common Room, Yale University, on the evening of 2/15/71. The purpose of the meeting was to "break the silence on Laos, on the war, and in ourselves" and was considered an initial attempt to reawaken people and get things moving again."

Among the main speakers and organizers listed was Psychology Professor ROBERT LIFTON.

The YDN of 2/4/71, on page 1, carried an article entitled "Dellinger Highlights Teach-In on Developments in Vietnam."

The article stated that "DAVID DELLINGER, a member of the Chicago Conspiracy 7 and editor of Liberation Magazine was one of five speakers at a teach-in dealing with recent developments in South Vietnam, held at Battell Chapel, Yale University, New Haven, Conn. on the evening of 2/3/71. The University, New Haven, Conn. on the Peoples teach-in was sponsored by The Yale Movement for the Peoples Peace Treaty.

NH 65-2389

of "psychic numbing" as seen in U.S. Troops in Vietnam. He described this phenomenon as "being an artifically induced dehumanization of the mind". He went on "those soldiers have the illusions that in gunning down babies and women, they are fighting the enemy". He added that he found these same fighting they had returned home "were starting to emerge as a real anti-war force because of their efforts to re-humanize themselves".

Room, Dupont Plaza Hotel, Washington, D.C, War Crime Commission Hearings were held by the National Veterans Inquiry of the U.S. War Crimes Policy, sponsored by the National Committee for a Citizens Commission of Inquiry on U.S. War Crimes in Vietnam, also known as Citizens Commission of Inquiry (CCI).

CCI has been characterized as an anti-war group with a New Left political orientation seeking a national inquest of the war crimes question.

Among the speakers on 12/2/70 was Professor ROBERT J. LIFTON, Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut, who described the acts of atrocity committed by U.S. Troops as being the result of "psychic numbing - - the loss of the capacity to feel - - and of general brutalization."

The "New Haven Register", a New Haven, Connecticut daily newspaper, of 10/20/70 on page 44, carried an article captioned "Anti-War Rally Planned October 31 by Peace Group."

The article indicates that a press conference held that date by the Connecticut Peace Action Coalition announced plans for an anti-war rally on the New Haven Green, 10/31/70, and the lauching of a petition drive "to put the question of the Vietnam War before the Conn. voters." It was further announced that "several teach-in programs will be held at a number of colleges in the New Haven area, starting next week. One of the speakers will be Yale Professor ROBERT LIFTON.

The National Peace Action Coalition was founded in 1970 by members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP). Its basic objective is to unite masses of people including labor unions, GIs, and the black community in the struggle to end United States intervention in Southeast Asia through orderly and peaceful tactios.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to: Executive Order 10450.

The YDN of 10/20/69 on page 1 carried an article captioned "Moratorium Committee Emerges in 'Non-Support' of 11/15 March on Washington."

The article indicates the position of the New Haven Moratorium Committee as that of rather than aiding the "March" effort to "invite every member of Congress from Conn. to come home on 11/13 and 14 to discuss the war with his constituents."

Among members of the Moratorium Executive Committee listed was Professor of Psychiatry Dr. ROBERT JAY LIFTON.

The YDN of February 4, 1969, on page 1, carried an article captioned, "'Research Stoppage" Planned for March."

The article indicates that a group of graduate students and faculty are planning a university-wide "research stoppage" from March 4 to stop uses and abuses of scientific research in America.

One of the planners, Professor ROBERT LIFTON, said it is being planned to "critically examine the dangers of corrupting scientific research."

It indicates that particular emphasis will be given to the social and ethical implications of defense research in biological and nuclear warfare, according to LIFTON. LIFTON indicates that although it is aimed primarily toward the sciences, it could become a university-wide "teach-in."

The article indicates that detailed plans have not yet been completed. LIFTON stated the convocation will be a day long "series of talks and discussions focusing on the problems of nuclear arms and chemical warfare." It stated "A Science Action Coordinating Committee, (SACC), at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, (MIT), issued faculty and student statements in January calling for a stoppage to all research activity on March 4, to dramatize their concern over the misuse of scientific and technical knowledge."

The October 5, 1964, issue of the Yale Daily News contains an article captioned, "Student Groups Flourish -- Politics on the Rise." The article indicates that Dr. R. J. LIFTON is a faculty advisor to Alternative, a Yale organization for research and education in the Dynamics of Peace.

Alternative, according to the article, was founded by a group of Freshmen in 1963, and has split into two groups, the Peace Action Committee, consisting of fifteen active members and non-action group, who consented to their name on a mailing list. This group is known under the whole name, "Alternative."

The October 10, 1965, issue of "The Washington Post," a Washington, D.C. daily publication on page A13 contained an advertisement by the National Committee for the Repeal of the McCarran Act, which contained the names of some three hundred people, called upon the "Executive and Legislative Representatives to re-assess an Act, which, born in panic and productive of fear, adds nothing to our security and diminishes the honor of a democracy." Contained among the names is Dr. ROBERT JAY LIFTON, Associate Professor of Psychiatry, Yale University.

National Committee for Repeal of the MC CARRAN Act, (NCRMA) maintains a mailing address of Room 318, 431 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois.

NCRMA was the outgrowth of an Ad Hoc Committee of Initiators, headed by Professor CLYDE MILLER of New York, who solicited signatures to a petition to the President of the United States in 1962, which called for the repeal of the MC CARRAN Act. The NCRMA held its formation meeting at Chicago on May 18, 1963; the stated purpose of the committee is to seek repeal of the Internal Security Act of 1950, as amended.

Communist Party (CP) interest in NCRIA had been to give it full support and approval and the CP took the position that the committee's composition must be extremely broad and the Party's direct influence must be kept to a minimum. The CP believed the new committee would serve its purpose in fighting the MC CARRAN Act alone and the CP had everything to gain by taking this position.

CLYDE MILLER, According to the "Daily Worker" issue of March 5, 1941, was a signer of a statement to the President defending the CP.

The "Daily Worker"was an east coast communist daily newspaper which ceased publication January 13, 1958.

The Yale Daily News of January 17, 1968, on page one, carries an article captioned, "Two Statements - - Professors Support Coffin."

The article indicates that Yale faculty members have released two statements supporting the Rev. WILLIAM SLOANE COFFIN, in response to his recent indictment for aiding draft resisters.

"One statement, offered to the entire Yale faculty for signing, 'connects what COFFIN is doing, to the country at large,' according to Psychiatry Professor Dr. ROBERT LIFTON, one of the statement's sponsors."

The current Yale University Faculty Directory reveals that Reverend WILLIAM SLOANE COFFIN, Jr., is University Chaplain and Pastor of the Church of Christ in Yale University, and resides at 66 Wall Street, New Haven, Connecticut.

WILLIAM SLOANE COFFIN, JR., along with Dr. BENJAMIN SPOCK, IRA GOODMAN, MICHAEL K. FERBER and MARCUS G. RASKIN, was indicted by Federal Grand Jury in Boston, Massachusetts, On January 5, 1968, and charged with violation of Title 50, United States Code, Appendix, Section 462 (a), conspiracy to counsel, aid and abet refusal to serve in the armed forces and to perform other duties required by the draft law and conspiracy to hinder the administration of the draft law.

These individuals, with the exception of MARCUS RASKIN, were convicted on June 14, 1968, in United States District Court, Boston, Massachusetts; RASKIN was found not guilty and was discharged.

On 7/11/69, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the First Circuit Court acquitted SPOCK and FERBER and ordered a new trial for GOODMAN and COFFIN. On 4/15/70, the office of the USA, Boston, Mass., filed a Nolle Prosequithereby declining prosecution in the GOODMAN and COFFIN cases.

The YDN of January 29, 1968, on page 1, carried an article captioned, "Teach-In' Backs Coffin, Cites War's Immorality." The article indicated that ROBERT LIFTON, Associate Professor of Psychiatry, among others, reviewed elements of the Vietnam Mar on January 28, 1968, in the Yale Law School Auditorium.

LIFTON, a psychiatry professor, probed "guilt anxiety" as a force behind resistance. "When I was in Vietnam last summer," he said, "I found myself experiencing this anxiety and self-condemnation."

He said the protestor appropriately responds to this guilt, while others become indifferent through "psychic numbing" a product largely of government propaganda.

Enclosed for Boston is one copy of a subpoena directed to the C&P Telephone Company of Washington, D. C. (WDC), for toll records of long distance calls charged to the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS), 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., WDC, from January, 1970, to the present date. Toll call records include charges to IPS telephone numbers 234-9382, 9383, 9384 and 9385. Subpoena was served on C&P Telephone Company on 9/2/71.

C&P Telephone Company of WDC furnished copies of the above long distance telephone charges on 9/3/71 to WFO These records contain about 5,000 telephone calls dating from March, 1971. The C&P Telephone Company regularly destroys records of long distance telephone charges after six months. It was noted, however, that IPS toll records obtained by WFO include some charges dating back as late as December, 1970.

WFO will review telephone company records, set out leads by airtel to offices covering locations of listed telephone numbers, requesting recipient offices to identify subscribers, check office indices, and conduct any logical investigation considered advisable in order to develop appropriate background data. WFO will instruct recipient offices to furnish results of investigation by airtel to WFO singly. WFO will review data submitted and will report that information considered pertinent to captioned investigation.

Boston handle appropriate disposition of enclosed subpoena.

NOTE:

In connection with our investigation of Daniel Ellsberg, information was developed indicating that the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS), Washington, D. The Department also requested that guests of the Continental Hotel who were neighbors of Susan Sheehan, when she resided there during period 3/21-23/71, be interviewed and exhibited photographs of the Susan Sheehan and her husband Neil as well as Ellsberg in an effort to develop any significant information concerning their activities during this period. Prior investigation has revealed that it was during this period that the Sheehans engaged in extensive duplicating of documents in the Cambridge and Boston area, which documents are believed to have been basis for articles by "The New York Times."

C., known as the Institute for Policy Studies. Past investigation has shown that this group has had "McNamara Study" material in its possession and that members of it have been associated with and in contact with Ellsberg. It is anticipated that the record of telephone calls for the Institute for Policy Studies will be very extensive and investigation will be necessary to identify individuals called and in some instances to conduct interviews with them. ST-106 On 9/1/71 Assistant Special Agent in Charge Boston Office advised that when in the past telephone toll call records have been subpoenaed by the Boston grand jury the Boston Office has undertaken to study the telephone company records and set out pertinent leads. He said that since Washington Field Office (WFO) is origin in the case on the Institute for Policy Studies, he felt that WFO would be in a better position to undertake a study of the records of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company subpoenaed and set out pertinent leads, not only with regard to captioned investigation but with regard to the investigation of the Institute. advised that this procedure would be satisfactory but that the matter should be discussed by him with WFO. Later in the day on 9/1/71 Supervisor advised that he concurred with thoughts and that WFO would set out leads in captioned matter regarding any logical investigation based upon a review of the toll call records. LEAKS OF CLASSIFIED INFORMATION TO THE PRESS

1 - Mr. Wagoner

To summarize, for information, data received during the night from offices involved in our continuing investigations of alleged leaks of classified data to the press.

MC LEK (Daniel Ellsberg):

lington, Virginia, advised that he worked on the "McNamara study" with Ellsberg and recalled that prior to Ellsberg's assignment in Vietnam in 1965 Ellsberg had expressed the opinion that the situation in Vietnam was bad and felt the U.S. should bomb North Vietnam. Upon his return from Vietnam, Ellsberg had changed his views and felt that the U.S. should withdraw from Vietnam. related that he had first met Ellsberg in 1963 and commenced work with him on the "McNamara study" in 1967.

how the "Christian Science Monitor (CSM)" came into possession of the "Pentagon papers" which were published in the CSM during June of 1971. It was understanding that the papers had been received on Saturday, 6/26/71, perused on 6/27/71, printed on Monday, 6/28/71 for distribution on 6/29/71. John Hughes, Editor; David K. Willis, American News Editor; and Geoffrey Godsell, Overseas News Editor, had studied the papers to determine whether the contents constituted a threat to the security of the U.S. and concluded that they did not. It was the decision of these individuals to publish the "Pentagon papers" over the objections of other persons on the editorial staff of the CSM.

revealed that some of the editorial writers permitted to formulate an opinion pertaining to the possible detrimental effect of publishing purloined Government papers of the Government.

The conservative attitude of CSM has been changing to a more liberal one.

Boston Office a paper cutter which was abandoned in the apartment of Marx and believed utilized by the Sheehans during reproduction of the "Pentagon papers" during the period 3/20-23/71. stated Marx's lease of the apartment expired 8/31/71 and she considers the paper cutter along with two chairs as having been abandoned by Marx. The paper cutter will be forwarded by the Boston Office for examination for latent fingerprints and for retention for possible future comparison to determine whether papers of interest had been cut by this particular instrument.
